1. ORGANIZATION OF THE DEPARTMENT

THE SECRETARY OF STATE

The Secretary of State, who is the highest ranking Cabinet member, is charged, under the direction of the President, with the conduct of negotiations of whatever character relating to the foreign affairs of the United States, and has charge of the correspondence with the diplomatic and consular representatives of the United States and with the representatives of foreign powers accredited to the United States. The Secretary of State grants and issues passports to nationals of the United States. Exequaturs to foreign consuls in the United States are issued through his office. He prescribes, promulgates, and administers regulations under treaties and laws governing international traffic in arms. He has custody of the seal of the United States, of current records relating to Presidential electors, and of the originals of acts and resolutions of Congress subsequent to the sixty-seventh Congress, and treaties, conventions, and other international agreements of the United States subsequent to August 14, 1906, and proclamations thereof by the President. He certifies the adoption of amendments to the Constitution of the United States. He publishes the acts and resolutions of Congress, territorial papers, treaties and other international acts of the United States, and papers relating to the foreign relations of the United States.

BOARD OF FOREIGN SERVICE PERSONNEL

The Board of Foreign Service Personnel is composed of not more than three Assistant Secretaries of State designated by the Secretary of State, one of whom shall be the Assistant Secretary of State having supervision over the Division of Foreign Service Personnel, who shall be chairman. In addition, by the provisions of Executive Order No. 8185, of June 29, 1939, one officer of the Department of Commerce and one officer of the Department of Agriculture are members of the Personnel Board, sitting as members of the Board only when matters of interest to their respective Departments are under consideration. The duties of the Board of Foreign Service Personnel, under Executive Order No. 5642, of June 8, 1931, are: to submit to the Secretary of State for approval lists of Foreign Service officers in which all Foreign Service officers shall be graded in accordance with their relative efficiency and value to the Service; to recommend promotions in the Foreign Service, and to furnish the Secretary of State with lists of Foreign Service officers who have demonstrated special capacity for promotion to the grade of minister; to submit to the Secretary of State for his approval and for transmission thereafter to the President, the names of those officers and employees of the Department of State who, after five years of continuous service in an executive or quasi-executive position, are recommended for appointment by transfer to the position of Foreign Service officer; to submit to the Secretary of State the names of those Foreign Service officers who are recommended for designation as counselors of embassy or legation; to recommend to the Secretary of State the assignment of Foreign Service officers to posts and the transfer of such officers from one branch of the Service to the other; to consider controversies and delinquencies among the Service personnel and to recommend to the Secretary of State appropriate disciplinary action where required; to determine, for submission to the Secretary of State after considering recommendations of the Division of Foreign Service Personnel, that the efficiency rating of an officer is unsatisfactory, thereby meaning below the standard required for the Service, in order that the Secretary of State may take appropriate action.
